This document has been translated from the Japanese original (as submitted to the Tokyo Stock Exchange) for reference purpose only. In the event of any discrepancy between this translated document and the Japanese original, the original shall prevail. Roland Corporation assumes no responsibility for this translation or for direct, indirect or any other forms of damages arising from the translation.

We wish to report as follows on the situation of the corporate governance of our company.

I. Our basic view on the corporate governance, and basic data including capital structure and attribute of the company

1. Our basic view

We at Roland Corporation define the corporate governance as the system effective in that our Group, which consists of Roland Corporation and its subsidiaries, increase its corporate value sustainably and autonomously to contribute to increasing the profits of all the stakeholders related to us, including shareholders, customers, business connections and employees, and to realize the sustainable environment and society: We will build and promote it.

We establish our corporate philosophy which represents the meaning of our Group's existence and we are determined to realize the corporate philosophy, so that we will live up to the expectations of the stakeholders surrounding us.

[Our Corporate Philosophy]

Roland's corporate philosophy is expressed through the three slogans below. These slogans, which remain unchanged from the time the company was founded, exemplify the reasons for the Roland Group's existence, as well as the kind of company we envision ourselves to be.

- Inspire the Enjoyment of Creativity

Our aim is to create an exciting world where everyone is able to enjoy music or videos in their own way, wherever and whenever they choose. We continue to pursue the possibilities of boundless joy that come from the satisfaction of creating new music or video, playing a musical instrument, or having the opportunity to share this joy with others.

- Be the BEST Rather Than the BIGGEST

We are committed to hard work and doing our best to become a one-of-a-kind company that offers the best to each and every one of our customers. What we value most as we continue to grow is the relationship of trust we enjoy with our customers. And we are committed to grow in ways that enable us to give our customers what they want, as well as inspire them with new dreams and expectations.

- Cooperative Enthusiasm for All Stakeholders

We aspire to be a company for which our customers have a special place in their hearts and are inspired to support. In creating new value, we are committed to respecting all principles that we are expected to uphold while developing an even deeper understanding of our purpose. Though this, we seek to transform the affinity for our company, of the customer and all stakeholders, into the needed strength to move the business forward.

[Grounds for the principles of the Corporate Governance Codes which are not implemented]

We implemented all of the principles of the Corporate Governance Codes.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

[Disclosure pursuant to the principles of the Corporate Governance Codes]

[Principle 1-4: Cross-Shareholdings]

If we hold listed shares as cross-shareholdings, we draw up standards for exercising voting rights and annually verify the propriety of holding the stocks.

[Principle 1-7: Related Party Transactions]

In case where our company's Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members, close relatives of the Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members, or major shareholders engage in transactions with our Group, such transactions will be supervised by, pursuant to our internal rules, the prior resolution by the Board of Directors or implementation of reporting to the Board of Directors after carrying them out. In addition, we will disclose the transactions between related parties in accordance with the Company Act, the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act, and other applicable laws and regulations, as well as the rules provided for by the stock exchanges.

[Supplementary Principle 2-4[1]: Securing diversity in the appointment of core personnel, etc.]

We at Roland believe that the artistic culture, including music, which allows us to express a variety of individuality and values and to approve each other's, will become more and more important in the matured society. We therefore respect the rights and diversity of every one of the people having relation with our business. With such awareness, within our company, we are always endeavoring to create the environment in which a wide variety of human resources, including females, foreign nationals, and mid-career employees, can demonstrate their ability in each lively way.

<About the female employees assuming important roles in business>

Our company has received the "ERUBOSHI" certification as the highest level company based on the Act on the Promotion of Female Participation and Career Advancement in the Workplace, as well as the "KURUMIN" certification as a child rearing support company under the Act on Advancement of Measures to Support Raising Next-Generation Children. To further promote the appointment of core personnel, we have set target for the ratio of female managers and are implementing various initiatives, including improving the working environment.<About the human resources of foreign nationals assuming important roles>

Among overseas group companies, it has become an established practice to appoint local employees to the senior management positions. At the same time, cooperation between organizations by function and other business interactions are actively performed including with our company's main body (Japan). In such a situation, we do not set targets on the percentage of core personnel accounted for by foreign nationals, etc. in our company's main body, but we will continue promoting the global management focusing the cooperation and interaction among group companies.

<About the mid-career employees assuming important roles>

We have been active in employing mid-career personnel, in an attempt to secure immediately useful human resources with a variety of capacities and viewpoints and, in appointing the personnel to the core positions, we screen them in terms of performance and achievement, without regard to employment type. In such a situation, we do not set targets on the percentage of core personnel accounted for by mid-career employees, etc., but we will continue promoting the assignment and appointment of appropriate personnel to appropriate positions.

<Our policy for human resource development aiming at securing diversity and our policy for improvement of in-house environment>

In our Group, we have established the basic policy for the personnel strategies focusing the fairness without regard to individual attributes such as age, gender, race, length of service, etc. as well as the voluntary growth of each employee. Based on the policy, we have arranged various kinds of systems. At the same time, we are promoting the arrangement of environment which allows various workstyles, in an attempt to raise the employees' engagement.

Please refer to our Website for details of the above.

[Principle 2-6: Roles of Corporate Pension Funds as Asset Owners]

As the pension systems, we have adopted the defined benefit corporate pension plan and the company-type, defined contribution pension plan.

In managing the assets of the defined benefit corporate pension plan, our fundamental principle is to secure the profits necessary for granting retirement allowances and pension payments for the future over the long term with minimum risk, and we formulate the policy-related asset mix.

We make final decisions on the matters concerning asset management after examination by the asset management committee, which consists of the experts of the human resource affairs division and finance division, working as the advisory organs.

Portfolio management and asset management of the pension assets are entrusted to the external trustee management organ and the situation is monitored regularly. With regard to the company-type, defined contribution pension plan, we are rendering education service, information service, etc. concerning asset management to the participants of the plan.

[Principle 3-1: Full Disclosure]

1. What the company is targeting at (the corporate philosophy), management strategies and management plans

Our corporate philosophy is described in section 1 of this report, "Our basic view." Our medium-term management policy is stated in the URL mentioned below.

<https://ir.roland.com/en/ir/management/midterm.html>

2. Basic view and basic policy concerning the corporate governance

Our basic view concerning the corporate governance is described in section 1 of this report, "Our basic view."

3. The policy on the determination by the Board of Directors of remuneration for the management executives and Directors and related procedures

The remuneration system for Directors and executive officers (entrustment type) is determined by the Board of Directors and the remuneration for individual Directors shall be determined by the Board of Directors on the basis of a draft submitted by the CEO and approved by the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

The remuneration for individual executive officers (entrustment type) is determined by the CEO, who reports this to the Nomination and Remuneration Committee, which oversees the appropriateness and fairness of the remuneration.

- System for the remuneration -

Remuneration for Directors (excluding Outside Directors) and executive officers (entrustment type) are made into the system so that it will be at the level where it functions as a sound incentive for our Group's sustainable growth. Depending on their position, the composition of remuneration is set at approximately 30–50% fixed remuneration (monthly pecuniary remuneration), 20–25% performance-linked bonuses tied to consolidated business performance, and 25–50% stock-based remuneration (PSU and RS). The bonus is pecuniary remuneration which links to the consolidated operating profit and the targeted results in the scope of the business each director is in charge of, and the stock-based remuneration is linked to the consolidated ROIC set as a target in the medium-term business plan and is granted in the form of granting of the Company stocks.

As to the remuneration for Outside Directors, remuneration consists of approximately 80% fixed remuneration (monthly pecuniary remuneration) and 20% stock-based remuneration (RSU). In this way, the stability of remuneration is ensured so that Outside Directors can appropriately perform their function of supervising management.

Remuneration for Audit & Supervisory Board Members is determined by the discussion among Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and includes only the fixed remuneration (monthly pecuniary remuneration).

However, in the case of non-Japanese officers, the Board of Directors determines fixed remuneration (monthly pecuniary remuneration), bonus and stock-based remuneration which are linked to the consolidated business performance individually for each eligible person, in light of the medium- to long-term remuneration policy agreed by the Board of Directors, taking into account the results of a report by an external, specialized agency on market prices in the respective countries.

4. Principle and procedures for the occasions on which the Board of Directors appoints or dismiss the management executives or designated candidates for Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members

The Nomination and Remuneration committee, the majority of which are Independent Directors, proposes the original draft concerning the candidates for Directors, Audit & Supervisory Board Members, CEO and executive officers (entrustment type) to the Board of Directors Meeting in pursuant to the criteria mentioned below and, subsequently, resolution on Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members is made by the General Meeting of Shareholders following the resolution by the Board of Directors Meeting and that on CEO and executive officers (entrustment type) is made at the Board of Directors Meeting.

(1) Appointment and dismissal of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members

[Criteria for appointment of Directors]

- (i) To have extensive experience, splendid record of achievement or great insight in certain fields concerning corporate management, which are necessary for making important decisions at the Board of Directors Meeting and for supervising other Directors' work.
- (ii) To have a high degree of ethics and law-abiding spirit.
- (iii) For executive Directors, to have capacity, experience, record of achievement, etc. necessary for performing the duties they are in charge of.

[Criteria for appointing Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

- (i) To have the experience and capacity necessary for supervising the lawfulness and appropriateness of Directors' performance of duties, as well as the appropriate knowledge concerning finance, accounting and legal affairs.
- (ii) To have a high degree of ethics and law-abiding spirit.

In case where any of the Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members is in deviation from the appointment criteria for each one of them, the Nomination and Remuneration committee will examine the situation strictly and, if concluding that dismissal is appropriate, the committee will propose dismissal of Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members to the Board of Directors Meeting. The Board of Directors Meeting will examine it strictly and, if concluding that dismissal is appropriate, will propose it to the General Meeting of Shareholders, which will make a decision on dismissal.

(2) Appointment and dismissal of CEO

[Criteria for appointing CEO]

The criteria for appointing CEO are the criteria for appointing Directors to which the following requirement is added.

- (i) To have the capability of concretely describe what the businesses of our Group should be on a medium and long terms, as well as its vision and the strategies for its realization.
- (ii) To have the leadership of directing the organization on a global basis and the potential of executive power for doing all he/she can do for the realization of the vision.
- (iii) To have the power of cooperation with which he/she can build a wide-ranging relationship with internal and external, various stakeholders.

In case where the CEO becomes to be deviating from the appointment criteria, or where the sales and profits are considerably in short of those projected in the medium- and long-term management plan, the Nomination and Remuneration committee will closely examine whether it is the most suitable decision to dismiss the CEO and appoint a new one and, when it concludes it is the most suitable, it will propose it to the Board of Directors Meeting. It will be strictly deliberated at the Board of Directors Meeting and, if it concludes that dismissal is the most suitable action, it will resolve on the dismissal of the CEO.

(3) Appointment and dismissal of executive officers (entrustment type)

[Criteria for appointing executive officers (entrustment type)]

- (i) To have capacity, experience, record of achievement, etc. necessary for performing the duties they are in charge of.
- (ii) To have a high degree of ethics and law-abiding spirit.

In case where an executive officer (entrustment type) becomes to be deviating from the appointment criteria, the Nomination and Remuneration committee will closely examine it and, when it concludes it is necessary, it will propose the dismissal to the Board of Directors Meeting. It will be strictly deliberated at the Board of Directors Meeting and, if it concludes that dismissal is the most suitable action, it will resolve on the dismissal of the executive officer (entrustment type).

With regard to the executive officer (employment type), the CEO will propose the appointment of a candidate, or the dismissal to the Board of Directors Meeting, which will make a decision on it.

5. Explanation about the individual appointment and designation for the case where the Board of Directors appoints the management executives as well as designates candidates for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members based on the provisions 4. mentioned above.

Reasons for nominating the candidates for respective Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members are stated in the Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders.

[Supplementary Principle 3-1 [3]: Efforts made for the sustainability]

Our business contributes to the sustainable development of the society through the musical and video culture and, at the same time, it is supported by the stability and affluency of the environment and the entire society. In addition, we are aware that it is an important duty for a corporation to face sincerely such various issues as those related to climate changes or human rights and to contribute to the solution for those. Based on this awareness, we have established our “Basic Policy for Sustainability” and “Materiality” with the Board of Directors’ approval, and we are engaging in various activities in this regard.

[Supplementary Principle 4-1 [1] Scope of entrustment to the management and its outline]

The Board of Directors of our company formulates the fundamental principle of management, formulates medium- and long-term management strategic plan, formulates the basic policy for the business portfolios, constructs the internal control system and others as well as makes decision on important managerial matters stipulated by laws, regulations, Articles of Incorporation, internal rules, etc., aiming at sustainable growth of our Group's corporate value.

We have established the executive officer system as the business executing system based on the Board of Directors' decision making: While executive officers execute business following the Board of Directors' decision, authority concerning the matters not covered by the matters to be resolved by the Board of Directors Meetings are devolved to executive officers, based on the internal rules. The Board of Executive Officers which consists of Executive Officers, shall be established for the purpose of deliberating and discussing the matters to be brought up for discussion at Board of Directors Meetings or the important matters in relation to business execution as well as sharing information on those.

[Supplementary Principle 4-1 [3] Succession Plans for CEO and other officers]

The Nomination and Remuneration committee monitors succession plans proposed by CEO in terms of objectivity, fairness, and validity, assist to refine and optimize criteria for appointing CEO and development plans through the discussion based on experiences and know-how of each member, reviews the roadmap, selects candidates, establishes and implements development plans, and reviews the process for evaluating, narrowing down, and replacing candidates in a timely manner.

[Principle 4-9: Independence Standards and Qualification for Independent Directors]

We have formulated the standards for the Independent Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members based on the standards for independence provided for by the Tokyo Stock Exchange. For details of the standards, please refer to the section II. 1 of this report, "[Matters related to Independent Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members] Other matters concerning Independent Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members."

[Supplementary Principle 4-10 [1] Our policy regarding the independence of the composition, the mandates and roles of the Nomination and Remuneration committee]

For our policy regarding the independence of the composition, the mandates and roles of the Nomination and Remuneration committee, please refer to section II. 1 of this report "[Matters related to Directors] Whether there is a voluntary committee which corresponds to the designation committee or the remuneration committee.- Supplementary explanation."

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 [1] Our views on the balance between knowledge, experience and capacity, the diversity and the scale of the Board of Directors as a whole]

The Board of Directors of our company should be composed of diverse Directors having different backgrounds in terms of experience, capacity, record of performance without regard to their gender, nationality, age, career, etc., and, at the same time, should maintain the personnel appropriate for effectively displaying its function of decision making and supervising. In addition, in order to increase the Board of Directors' function of supervision and to secure its diversity, Independent Directors shall be appointed as they shall account for one-third or more of the total Board of Directors members, including at least one who has experienced business management in other companies.

In order for the entire Board of Directors to secure the skills necessary in the light of business direction with medium- and long-term views and the business strategies, the skill matrix is created and disclosed in the Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders. In the skill matrix, the skills necessary for the Board of Directors are specified and the knowledge, experience, capability, etc. which each Director has are listed in a chart.

Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders:
<https://ir.roland.com/en/ir/stock/meeting.html>

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 [2]: The posts concurrently held by Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

We will disclose the situation of Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members concurrently holding other important posts in the Notice of General Meeting of Shareholders or in the Annual Securities Report. We believe that our company's Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members are concurrently holding the posts within a reasonable extent that will not interfere with performance of their duties as our Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

[Supplementary Principle 4-11 [3]: Effectiveness assessment of the Board of Directors]

1. Method of assessing

- Information (such as bills submitted to the Board of Directors, time the Board of Directors took for discussion, etc.) concerning the effectiveness assessment are distributed to all of the Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members.
- The “Table of effectiveness assessment” is distributed to those mentioned above, and the responses are obtained.
- Based on the above written responses, interviews are conducted to obtain the views of each Director and each Audit & Supervisory Board Member.
- The assessment was made from the four viewpoints of: “Operation of the Board of Directors”, “Scale and composition of the Board of Directors”, “Provision of information to Outside Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members” and “Roles of the Board of Directors”.
- In addition to quantitative assessments, we analyzed “satisfactory points” and “points that need improvement”.
- The Board of Directors discussed the issues of itself and shared the future direction of improvement.

2. Summary of the result of assessment

The summary of the result of assessment is as follows.

- The Board of Directors consists of Outside Directors with diverse backgrounds and its majority are Outside Directors. As a result, discussions are actively held from a variety of perspectives, and the composition is desirable for governance.
- Outside Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members had opportunities to attend internal meetings, such as the Management meeting and the Risk Management and Compliance Committee in addition to Board of Directors meeting, and Audit & Supervisory Board Members actively conducted visiting audits. As a result, they obtained information on management planning and the business environment as appropriate, and made comments based on their understanding of the workplace and the actual situation.
- The initiation of continuous advance briefings of board meetings for Outside Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members has facilitated prior understanding of the agenda and has contributed significantly to fostering efficient and effective discussions at board meetings.

We also plan to review the following issues in order to strengthen governance and implement effective BOD operations.

- Diversity and composition (numbers of outside directors and executive directors) of Board of Directors
- Ideal state, role and responsibilities of the Board of Directors
- Securing sufficient time and improving materials in order to facilitate thorough discussions on medium-to long-term management strategies and governance system.
- Provision of necessary and sufficient information for supervision of execution

[Supplementary Principle 4-14 [2]: Training for Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members]

When a Director or an Audit & Supervisory Board Member is newly appointed, we will provide him/her with an opportunity to obtain understanding of the duties and responsibilities of Directors or Audit & Supervisory Board Members, actual businesses of the Board of Directors or the Audit & Supervisory Board, our corporate governance system, and other matters. When an Outside Director or an Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Member is newly appointed, we will explain the above-mentioned matters taking into consideration his/her experience and specialized field and, in addition, we will provide him/her with an opportunity to deepen understanding of our businesses, such as the explanation about details of our businesses, presentation of works, and participation in the meetings for exhibition of our products.

[Principle 5-1: Policy for Constructive Dialogue with Shareholders]

For our principle concerning the constructive dialogues with our shareholders, please refer to section III. 2 of this report, “Activities concerning the IR --- Others.”

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

[Action to Implement Management that is Conscious of Cost of Capital and Stock Price] [English disclosure available]

In our medium-term management plan, we have set ROIC, a capital efficiency indicator, as an important management indicator along with sales and operating profit, and are working with a defined target value. We evaluate and verify capital efficiency by setting WACC as the cost of capital, and have maintained a high level of ROIC of 15.2% in FY2025.

For more information on the specific initiatives, etc. to implement management that is conscious of cost of capital and stock price, please refer to our website.

The Board of Directors which consists of six members (including four Outside Directors) formulates the fundamental principle of management, formulates medium-term management plan, formulates the basic policy for the business portfolios, constructs the internal control system and others, as well as makes decisions on important managerial matters stipulated by laws, Articles of Incorporation, internal rules, etc. and supervises the Directors' performance of business management. The Board of Directors holds a meeting regularly on a monthly basis and, when there are matters requiring emergency resolution, holds extraordinary meetings or written resolution.

(ii) Audit & Supervisory Board

The Audit & Supervisory Board consists of three Audit & Supervisory Board Members (including three Outside Audit & Supervisory Board Members) and holds a meeting regularly on a monthly basis. The Audit & Supervisory Board meeting formulates the plan for Audit & Supervisory Board Members audit and the report on the Audit & Supervisory Board audit and, in addition, a report is made on the implementation of audit based on the audit plan mainly by full-time Audit & Supervisory Board Members and discuss matters concerning the Board of Directors' matters for discussion. In addition, as required, the Audit & Supervisory Board holds, extraordinary meetings. Besides, in order to grasp the process of decision-making on important matters as well as the situation of performance of duties, Audit & Supervisory Board Members attend important internal meetings other than the Board of Directors Meetings and, in addition, are endeavoring to supervise the Directors' business performance by such ways as to visit subsidiaries for inspection.

(iii) Nomination and Remuneration committee

A voluntary Nomination and Remuneration committee, the majority of which are Independent Directors, is formed to ensure transparency and fairness in appointment/dismissal of Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members as well as CEO and executive officers, along with determination of remuneration.

(iv) Risk Management and Compliance Committee

The Risk Management and Compliance Committee, which consists of CEO, Executive Directors, executive officers, the Group's key executives, and Audit & Supervisory Board Members, reports matters that are particularly important in terms of risk management or compliance, and disseminates and approves countermeasures therefor.

(v) Board of Executive Officers

The Board of Executive Officers, which consists of all executive officers, decides on matters to be submitted to the Board of Directors and important matters in business execution, and shares important information.

(vi) Sustainability Promotion Committee

The Sustainability Promotion Committee, which consists of all executive officers, as a supplementary organization to the Board of Executive Officers, promotes our company's activities designed to enhance sustainability that incorporates the ideas of ESG and SDGs, and makes regular reports to the Board of Directors so that it can ensure the supervision of such sustainability initiatives from the business management side.

(vii) Agreements for limiting responsibilities

Based on the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and Article 427 of the Company Law, we have concluded with all the Directors (excluding Executive Directors) and Audit & Supervisory Board Members the agreement that, concerning the responsibility for damages stipulated in Article 423-1 of the Company Law, if they perform duties in good faith and there are no gross negligence, the maximum compensation for the damage shall be the minimum liability provided for by the laws.

3. Reasons that we have selected the current corporate governance system

We have selected the style of a Company with an Audit & Supervisory Board so as to ensure appropriate and proper performance of duties through the supervision by Directors and the audit conducted by Audit & Supervisory Board Members who have a wide-ranging investigation authority. In addition, we have installed the Nomination and Remuneration committee to complement the Board of Directors to ensure transparency and fairness in important personnel affairs.

III. Implementation of measures concerning shareholders and other stakeholders

1. Our engagement for vitalization of the General Meetings of Shareholders and for facilitating exercise of voting rights

IV. Matters concerning the internal control system, etc.

1. Basic view on the internal control system and how it has been arranged

<Basic policy on the internal control system>

1. The system to ensure that the execution of duties by the Directors of our group and employees conforms with laws, regulations and articles of incorporation

(1) We formulate the “Roland Group Compliance Guideline”, which is the basic guiding principle for observance of the compliance in our group and make it known to everyone in the group aiming at overall observance of laws and regulations.

(2) The Risk Management / Compliance Committee, consisting of our executive officers, Audit & Supervisory Board Members, and major subsidiaries executives, shall be formed to promote Group-wide compliance, including the formulation of compliance promotion plans for the entire Group and the identification of priority management laws and regulations for the entire Group. In addition, we will establish compliance promotion officers in each region of the Group, and these officers will formulate and implement compliance promotion plans in accordance with the policies of the Risk Management / Compliance Committee in accordance with the actual conditions of each region. Through these efforts, we promote compliance throughout the Group.

(3) We establish an internal reporting system in our company so that a suspicion may be conveyed regarding the violation of laws or regulations, or wrongdoing by the management or employees of our company, or the actions which may lead to such conduct and, at the same time, we establish the global internal reporting system so those employees of subsidiaries may report their suspicion about the violation of laws or regulations, or wrongdoing, etc., aiming at increasing the clean-itself-up function of the entire Group.

(4) The internal audit division of our company takes charge of the audit of the entire Group of our company and, at the same time, reports to the Board of Directors and to the Audit & Supervisory Board every year on the plan and result of its internal audit so as to increase the effectiveness of the internal audit of the entire Group of our company through promoting collaboration between the Board of Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board and the internal audit division.

2. The system concerning the preservation and management of information concerning the Directors’ execution of their duties

(1) The information about the Directors’ execution of their duties, including the minutes of such important meetings as the General Meeting of Shareholders and the Board of Directors Meetings as well as the authorization memoranda, is made into documents and preserved and managed based on the laws and regulations as well as internal regulations such as the “Document Storage Regulations”.

(2) Directors and Audit & Supervisory Board Members of our company may peruse such documents, in case where it is necessary for performance of their duties.

3. Regulations and other systems concerning the management of the risk of losses of our Group

(1) We build an appropriate management system against various types of risk surrounding our Group, by laying down the “Fundamental Regulations for Risk Management”.

(2) The Risk Management / Compliance Committee formulates the policy on the measure for the risks covering our Group by analyzing and assessing the probability of occurrence and the degree of influence. Major risks are reviewed regularly by the Board of Directors Meetings to manage risk for the entire Group of our company.

(3) With regard to the risk about which the possibility of occurrence of losses has surfaced, we verify the countermeasures and make the measures for prevention of recurrence be known to everyone at the Board of Executive Officers consisting of our executive officers, based on the reports from our executive officers and from our subsidiaries.

(4) In an emergency, CEO forms the responding organization as the chief administrator in the crisis management system, and grasps the situation and takes appropriate steps based on the business continuity plan prescribed in advance.

4. The system to ensure the efficient performance of duties of Directors of our Group

(1) Our company adopts the executive officer system so that we can keep the number of Directors to a small one to further improve the quality of discussion at the Board of Directors Meeting and can rapidly make a decision.

(2) The Board of Directors holds the meeting once a month in principle to decide on the matters related to determine the fundamental principles and strategies for the group management, to the execution of important businesses and to supervise the Directors' execution of their duties.

(3) Our company formulates our Group's medium- and long-term business plan as well as annual plan at the Board of Directors. Our company and its subsidiaries perform the businesses according to such plans, and review regularly the progress of implementation.

(4) Our company appoints an executive officer for each one of the functions to build the system which allows to manage and supervise the execution of businesses of the entire Group including subsidiaries by each function, so that we can operate the group management efficiently.

(5) Authorization for approval of the matters concerning our company is clearly stipulated in the "Regulations for Approval". In addition, from among the matters concerning subsidiaries, the matters which require approval of our company are clearly stipulated in the "Regulations for Management of Affiliates". By doing so, it is aimed at that the responsibility about the decision-making for the entire Group of our company will be specified and the performance of duties will become more efficient.

5. The system concerning the reports to our company on the subsidiary Directors' execution of their duties

(1) In the "Regulations for Management of Affiliates", we specify the matters concerning the subsidiary operation, including business results and financial status of subsidiaries, and the matters which may affect the Group, such as the occurrence of risk, as the matters on which reports should be made by the subsidiaries to the relevant division of our company, and we make it thoroughly known to everyone in the Group.

(2) The corporate planning division of our company supervises to confirm whether the reports from subsidiaries are made accurately and appropriately, and continues improvement of the reporting system and giving guidance about it.

6. The system to guarantee the effectiveness of the audit by Audit & Supervisory Board Members

(1) Audit & Supervisory Board Members may instruct the personnel of the internal audit division of our company to assist in the auditing business as an assistant to his/her business.

(2) Personnel assessment, appointment, and personnel change of the personnel of the internal auditing division shall be subject to the agreement by Audit & Supervisory Board Members, to ensure the independence from Directors.

(3) When a member of the personnel of the internal auditing division assists Audit & Supervisory Board Members in performing duties, he/she will exclusively obey Audit & Supervisory Board Members' instructions and command.

(4) Audit & Supervisory Board Members may at any time as required request Directors or employees of our company or its subsidiaries to report to him/her.

(5) If there are any actions which are (or may possibly be) in violation of laws, regulations or articles of incorporation, or facts which may possibly cause the company significant losses, a report will immediately be made to Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

(6) If a report is made in the internal reporting system, the fact of a report has been made and its contents will be reported to Audit & Supervisory Board Members.

(7) Our company arranges the system so that the person who has reported to Audit & Supervisory Board Members or used the internal reporting system will not be treated or handled improperly.

(8) We will form a budget in advance to cover the expenses that are necessary for performing duties of Audit & Supervisory Board Members and, if expenses arise in an emergency for performing the auditing business or being paid temporarily, the company defrays them.

(9) Audit & Supervisory Board Members may attend the important, internal meetings and express his/her opinion.

(10) Audit & Supervisory Board Members shall hold meetings regularly, or as required, with President to exchange views, etc. concerning important subjects in connection to auditing.

(11) Audit & Supervisory Board Members shall hold meetings regularly with the accounting auditor to exchange views, etc. concerning matters related to accounting.

2. Basic views on the elimination of antisocial power and how it has been arranged

(1) Basic views

Our company's basic principle is to take a dauntless attitude against the antisocial power and will have no relationship and no deals with it.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REPORT

(2) How it has been arranged

[1] In the “Roland Group Compliance Guidelines”, the basic principle mentioned above has been stipulated as one of the behavioral standards, which has been made known to every Directors / Audit & Supervisory Board Members, officer and employee. In addition, as internal rules, we have established “Rules for Elimination of Antisocial Power” and “Gist of the Implementation of the Rules for Elimination of Antisocial Power” to arrange the system for the exclusion of the deals with antisocial power and, at the same time, we make checks to confirm that the counterparty of a transaction is not the antisocial power.

[2] We have assigned the person in charge of preventing unreasonable demand in the Corporate Affairs Dept., which is the department to supervise the responses to unreasonable demand and made a notification to the public safety commission.

[3] We have participated in the Shizuoka Prefecture Council on Measures to Protect Corporations, which has been established for the purpose of protecting corporations, and are endeavoring to collect information on and obtain knowledge of the antisocial power with the division in charge of response at the center, and, at the same time, if a case of unreasonable demand, etc. occurs, our system will enable us to report to and consult with the Council, police, National Center for the Elimination of Boryokudan and lawyers promptly.
